WHO'S WHO
in
"THE SECOND MAN"

Earle Larimore is appearing in his original role, one of the four principal parts in "The Second Man", which he played in the Theatre Guild production. Mr. Larimore, one of New York's most popular young men, has scored Broadway successes in "The Silver Cord", "Man's Estate", and he recently closed in the production "Melo".

Muriel Kirkland has just completed her New York season in a featured role of "The Greeks Had a Word For It". Miss Kirkland became famous overnight in the feminine lead of "Strictly Dishonorable".

Spring Byington, one of the resident Playhouse company, became a great favorite with Cape Cod audiences last summer, and withdrew from the play "Once in a Lifetime" — in which she played a leading comedy role — so that she could once again join the Cape Cod Players.

Donald Macdonald has just returned from a London success in "Strange Interlude". Mr. Macdonald has been associated with many Broadway successes, and was the juvenile of Philip Barry's "Paris Bound".

All visitors are welcome to the Cinema gardens, which have attracted enthusiastic interest from near and far this spring. Stately delphiniums of deep blue hue dignify the profusion of old-fashioned flowers scattered gayly about the lovely gardens. Madonna and Regal lilies have recently bloomed, and the Japanese Iris have blossomed luxuriantly. American Pillar Roses promise beauty to the rambling fence, and bluest forget-me-not straggle wildly along the water's edge, down by the goldfish pond.
